MY FRIEND—A WORD WITH YOU.

Do you know that every man who desires to vote at this election must register anew? Even if you have registered and voted before, you must register again under the new Election Law to vote this year.

Do you want the Republicans to carry the election and have your neighbors arrested and put in jail as in 1893? If not, REGISTER and VOTE THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Do you wish the negro to get control of your county and State? If not, RE-GISTER and VOTE for the DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES.

You do not know that EVERY NEGRO in the State will REGISTER and VOTE?
Then so must every WHITE MAN.

Do you want negro Yankee soldiers with drawn bayonets to meet you at the polls and dictate to you how to vote? If not, be sure your name is on the registration books, and do not fail to vote the straight Democratic ticket.

You can't register after Oct. 24th—so REGISTER AT ONCE. Don't say you have not time—take time—YOUR HAP-PINESS depends on it; the GOOD NAME and PROSPERITY OF YOUR STATE depends on IT; HONEST GOVERNMENT and WHITE MAN'S CONTROL depends on IT. Don't wait.
Delay may cost the defeat of the party.

All Democratic papers will please copy and keep at the top of the column of each issue until after the election.

ED. CHAMBERS SMITH, Chm'n. Dem. State Ex. Com.

GIGANTIC CORRUPTION FUND.

(C. B. Aycock in Raleigh.)

The money which is being applied under the form of law is not to pay pensions, but it is for the purpose of converting the Treasury of the United States into a gigantic corruption fund, in order that by the seduction of the voters of the North, the Republican party can perpetuate themselves in power forever.
The $118,000,000 is appropriated not to pay worthy soldiers alone, but it is appropriated for the purpose of undermining the integrity of the voter and to get him to vote the Republican ticket.
North Carolina pays annually $4,000,000 for pensions.

"I AM A DEMOCRAT!"

Gov. DAVID BENNETT HILL, who glories in saying "I am a Democrat," is speaking in Ohio this week, and will make five speeches in the Buckeye State. He is a thorough Democrat of the Jacksonian school, and believes in fighting the enemy aggressively and all the time.
That's the CHRONICLE's kind of a Democrat.

WHAT right has a Democrat who claims recognition at the hands of his party and who accepts honors from his party to vote for an avowed enemy to that party?

"WATCH THE PROFESSOR."

Prof. McIVER is posing as the Alliance candidate for Congress in the 4th district. Let's see whether he is entitled to the votes of Alliance men.

He was nominated by a convention composed mainly of revenue officers and negroes. There was not an Alliance man in the convention that nominated him.
He was placed in nomination by JNO. WIL-LIAMSON, a negro from Franklin county, and his nomination was seconded by one RAMSEY, a negro from Chatham. The Professor has been forced to admit on every stump that he is for a protective tariff, and this is in positive opposition to the principles upon which the Alliance is founded.

It is well known that he opposed the Sub-Treasury bill, and never favored it till he was nominated for Congress. His opposition to this measure was the cause of Chatham County declaring for Mr.
W. F. STROUD for Congress. It came about in this way: When the Sub-Treasury Bill was presented to the Chatham County Alliance, it was bitterly opposed by Prof. McIVER and advocated by Mr. STROUD. Mr. STROUD so completely demolished the Professor that he was requested by the County Alliance to visit the Subordinate Alliances in the county, and advocate the passage of the measure before the Subordinate Alliances against Prof. McIVER who opposed it. He did his work so well and so effectively that without his knowledge the Chatham County Alliancemen came out for him for Congress.

These facts were learned from Mr.
STROUD at Cates, in Orange county, on last Friday, Oct. 17th, when Prof.
McIVER from the stump called upon him to state the facts, and then he gave them to Mr. BUNN, the Democratic candidate, just as stated above.

The Professor was asked soon after the Chatham county convention if he would vote for Mr. STROUD in the event he was nominated by the Democratic convention, and T. M. ARGO, or Dr.
EUGENE GRISMOND was nominated by the Republicans. His reply was: "No; I must stick to my party."

Can it be possible to deceive Alliancemen in this way? The Professor declared that he would vote for a lawyer or a doctor, who did not belong to the Alliance, rather than a member of his own Alliance.

Alliancemen, look out! The Professor is trying to deceive you. He is holding JOHN WILLIAMSON (col.) with one hand and the Alliance with the other.

The Professor admitted on the stump in Orange, that the opposition to Mr.
BUNN had been brought about by a misunderstanding of Mr. BUNN's position.

AN APT COMPARISON.

At the speaking at Chapel Hill on Saturday last, LONDON A. WHITEHEAD, the colored candidate for the Legislature, said that the negro constituted nine tenths of the Republican vote in the State, and that it reminds him of a great big brindle dog with a little white tip on the end of his tail, and the little white tip was trying to control the whole dog, and he said that the colored people were tired of this little white tip managing the whole dog. "The negroes," he added, "make up the Republican party and the white men reap the benefit." He spoke truly when he said that negroes compose nine tenths of the Republicans and white men get most of the offices.
But are the negroes really tired of this, as he says? They seem to be in Orange, but in the other ninety five counties they seem to be as docile and as glib as ever.
"When I want a negro, I buy him," was the utterance of a white Radical. The fact that the negroes do not resent the conduct of the "tip" of this dog is the best evidence that they are not competent to rule.

ABOLITION OF LEGAL TECHNI-CITIES.

The Supreme Court has held that under the act of 1897 and the other acts and previous decisions abolishing technicities in indictments that the following is now a sufficient indictment for murder:

The jurors for the State upon their oaths present that A. B. in the county of E. did feloniously and with malice aforethought kill and murder C. D.

And that the following is a sufficient indictment for manslaughter:

The jurors for the State upon their
oaths present that A. B. in the county of E. did feloniously kill and slay C. D.

The above contains all the averments that ever have, at any time, been necessary to be proven, and the act has simply stricken off the superfluous allegations which it has never been necessary to be proven. The above forms are substantially the same as those which have been used in England for the last thirty-five years under a similar act.

A DIFFICULT QUESTION.

(C. B. Aycock in Raleigh.)

The South has furnished a great body of the statesmen who have shaped the destiny of this great country of ours; yet I fear the day is past when she shall grow these great statesmen. We are surrounded here with the social question which towers above all other questions. It is here; we cannot solve it. The north blames and curses us about it. They say we can solve it. It reminds me of Tennyson's elegy:

"An infant crying in the night, An infant crying for the light,
And with no language but a cry."

DEMOCRATIC TRUTHS ARE SWEEP.

(C. B. Aycock in Raleigh.)

I love about this time of the year to hear good Democratic speeches, and I very much dislike to make one, but I am here to night to talk to you very plainly and very simply about a few old truths which never grow old, and which are as sweet the thousandth time you hear them as they were the first time you heard them. When political speakers begin their speeches the people will often say, "Oh I wish he would tell us some thing new, I have heard that stuff before," and yet there is not one of you who ever had a sweetheart who said to you, after you had told her the ten thousandth time that you loved her, that the old story was not sweet.

WHAT is thought of that soldier who crosses over to the lines of the enemy and gives such aid or assistance as enables the enemy to overcome the army, or any part of it on the day of battle?

WHAT would be thought of a soldier, who on the day of battle, should fire every fourth shot to the rear, cutting down his own men?

Has a member of a business firm the right to use his credit to the injury and ruin of the firm and against their consent?

CRAWFORD DOWNS EWART.

The Indian Agent Prostituting His Office to Radical and Base Ends.
(Special Cor. of STATE CHRONICLE.)

CHEROKEE, N. C., Oct. 17, 1890.—The inhabitants of and around this place were served a delicious treat on the 14th inst. The occasion was the joint debate between Hon. Wm. T. Crawford, Democratic candidate for Congress, and H. G.
Ewart, Republican, in which Mr. Crawford won a grand triumph for himself and the Democracy of the Ninth district.
Crawford simply carried the day, evidently to the discomfiture of Mr. Ewart and his few official sponsors at this place.
The voice came through from the field already traversed that Mr. Ewart has become so accustomed to such merciless, yet graceful treatment, that it has become a kind of a fascination to him that compels him to come up, at least to every third appointment, to receive Mr.
Crawford's courtesies.

If Mr. Ewart survives the successive repulses received at this place and Bryson City on the next day, and continues to follow the magnetic "Force Bill" of the Democratic party, his fidelity might be expressed in the words of the Psalmist: "Though he slay me (each day), yet will I follow him."

Mr. Crawford is evidently the choice of the people, and is warmly held in the affections of all who know him.
His election is quite assured.

In the interim mark down a large proportion of the Indian vote for CRAWFORD, notwithstanding the despairing efforts of the Radical superintendent Goat, of the Indian school at this place, to persuade the Indians by his gilded "Brass" (band), and gifts of old clothes and shoes, who is sustained in said generosity by an appropriation of $14,723 annually for carrying on his "infant" social "despotism" in our midst.

Valuable Lands for Sale.

By virtue of the power contained in the last will and testament of Richard Gwyn, deceased, of R. R. and T. L. Gwyn, executors of said will, will sell at public sale, on the premises, on Wednesday, the 12th day of November, 1890, the following lands, to-wit:

Fifteen hundred acres more or less, in Swain county, N. C., on the waters of Mitchell river and South Fork. The lands are in a very healthy section, six to ten miles north of Elkin, well watered and timbered, with fine water power, and thought to contain valuable mineral resources.

Terms cash, as the time has arrived for the settlement of the estate.

GOOD REASONS

For Patronizing the Moseley House.

1—I am pleasantly located, near all that is of interest and on the main street, where all the city pass, and directly opposite the large dry goods house of W. H. & R. S.
Tucker & Co.

2—I find everything neat and clean at the Moseley House, and feel as if at home, for they make me.

3—I find the Dining Hall for Ladies and Gentlemen well cared for and as pleasant as any seaside resort—no flies, and the Rotating Fly Fans keep one cool and pleasant, while I can enjoy one of the good meals you can always get at the Moseley House for 50 cents.

4—An enterprise that the traveling public should appreciate and patronize is the Mose-ley House.

The New Tariff Law,

which went into effect October 6th, will, of course, result in an advance in the prices on foreign goods of all descriptions.

Anticipating its passage, we naturally availed ourselves of all our facilities, and in the interest of our patrons purchased largely abroad of those goods in our line most affected by the tariff, bringing forward the goods in time to escape the higher duties.

In consequence of the unsettled state of the markets, because of the uncertainty, we made all our purchases with great advantage, and all were gotten in before the higher duties went into effect.

Consequently for the next few months our enormous stock will offer great advantages to buyers, as the benefits secured by us shall be turned over to our customers.

In no case shall we, while the present large stock lasts, mark the goods at any advance based on present cost, but give our customers every advantage of our careful preparation, always realizing that their interest and our own are identical.

THE SUCCESS OF THE

Provident Savings Life Assurance

SOCIETY

—OF—

NEW YORK

Is attracting wide attention, for the following reasons:

1st. The increase in the amount of new Insurance in 1889 was 66 per cent. over that of the previous year.

2d. New business in 1889 nearly twenty millions of dollars.
